

The Z Designer program is a one-off program to provide exposure to KKTM students on furniture designs. This program used waste (box) to create furniture designs. This program were challenge the creativity of students in the use of materials and design. This programme was held at FPTP UTHM Parit Raja.

